SIX MORE SEATS FOR PRESIDENT

National Committee Again Concedes Roosevelt None.

HENEY SAYS ANOTHER STEAL

San Francisco Adherent of Rough Rider Comments Forefully on Decision in Ninth Tennessee Case. Taft's Attorneys Ask Further Time to Prepare Briefs on Thirty Contests From Texas.

HOW THEY STAND NOW.

Taft, Roosevelt.
Delegates instructed... 411
and unconvinced... 201
Added by committee... 173
Present total... 374
Contests pending... 424
Instructed for Cummins, 10; uninstructed, 166.
Delegates to convention, 1,078.
Necessary for nomination, 540.

Chicago, June 15.—President Taft received six delegates at the hands of the Republican committee in contests with the forces of Colonel Roosevelt. To that number the committee added eight by the settlement of local fights between Taft rival delegations. Opposed to the total of fourteen for President Taft was another empty sheet for Colonel Roosevelt.

When the committee adjourned the Texas, Virginia and Washington contests remained as the struggles in which the Roosevelt leaders are to center their strength.

None of the contests brought out the strong partisan feeling which has characterized many of the arguments and decisions in the committee room.

In the three districts where Roosevelt contestants appeared the partisans of Colonel Roosevelt on the committee voted against the seating of the Taft delegates, but the only strong comment was on the decision of the Ninth Tennessee case, which Francis J. Heney asserted was a "clean steal."

A contest from Alaska that had not figured in the committee's lists was disposed of without argument just before adjournment. Credentials from a contesting delegation elected at Valdez May 29 had been received by Secretary Hayward, but the committee declined to consider them.

Attorneys Ask More Time.

The sudden termination to the proceedings resulted from the desire of President Taft's attorneys for more time to prepare the cases involving the thirty contested delegates from Texas.

Colonel Cecil Lyon, the Texas committeeman, declared the Roosevelt forces were prepared and desired to continue. Former Senator Dick asked a continuance.

An attempt to take up the Virginia and Washington cases met counter opposition from the Roosevelt attorneys. Ormsby McHarg said his side was prepared to present the Texas cases, but would not argue the others.

The remaining contests include those of Texas, Virginia, Washington, the District of Columbia and the Fourth district of North Carolina. In the North Carolina district both delegations are understood to be for Roosevelt.

In Virginia the chief issue is whether or not the conventions electing Taft delegates were held in districts or buildings from which negroes were excluded. The Washington contests center about the control of the Washington state convention.

The contested delegates in Texas number thirty; in Virginia twenty; in Washington fourteen; in the District of Columbia and in North Carolina two.

CALIFORNIA VOICES PROTEST

State Committee Wires Rosewater

Thefts Life Ruef's Sanctioned.

San Francisco, June 15.—The Republican state central committee sent the following telegram to Victor Rosewater, chairman of the national committee, at Chicago:

"The Republican state committee of California denounces your shameful attempt to unseat two Roosevelt delegates elected by a majority of 77,000 votes. Every decent Republican in the state, be he for Taft or Roosevelt, is astounded at the political piracy.

"The election of the entire Republican delegation was never questioned in California. A fictitious controversy was created solely and alone by Patrick Calhoun, indicted here with Abe Reg for bribery and franchise theft. We prosecuted and imprisoned men for those thefts in California. You have sanctioned and rewarded similar thefts."

Jurist and Warrior Dead.

Minneapolis, June 15.—Judge Henry George Hicks, in the past judge of the district court for eight years, member of the legislature six terms, sheriff of Hennepin county in the early days, once city justice of Minneapolis, past commander of the Loyal Legion and one of the first Minnesota department commanders of the G. A. R., is dead. Judge Hicks was seventy-four years old.

COLONEL WEARS BRAND NEW LID

Will Appear at Chicago in Pearl Gray Sombrero.

TO TAKE CHARGE OF FIGHT

Roosevelt Suddenly Decides to Leave New York for the Convention City to Personally Assume Command of the Forces Which Are Battling to Secure for Him the Republican Presidential Nomination.

New York, June 15.—Colonel Roosevelt started for Chicago to lead the fight for his nomination at the Republican convention. He left on the Lake Shore limited and is due in Chicago this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The colonel announced his decision to start for the political storm center and take personal charge of the fight for delegates. The fact that the former president had motored up from Oyster Bay, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, with baggage aboard the machine, gave rise to expectations that he had decided to go.

When he reached his office he found an excited crowd awaiting him. Politicians, newspaper men and photographers in such number that the corridor of the building was thronged, pressed about him, each one asking the same question, but the colonel escaped to his private office with only a few words.

From time to time he came out, saying he had not made up his mind. It was not until after he had made several of these flying expeditions into the corridor that he at last emerged and with his face set hard announced his intention of going.

Efforts to obtain any further information from him were unavailing. He made but one appearance from the seclusion of his office when he was shown a newspaper headline quoting President Taft as saying "I will win."

The colonel, who was walking briskly through the corridors as the paper was spread out before him and a request made for his comment, gave it a quick glance and frowned. His only response was an impatient grunt.

Uses Freight Elevator.

Colonel Roosevelt disappointed a crowd of some 200 persons gathered at the Grand Central station to see him off by entering the trainshed from the Forty-fifth street side of the station and descending to the track platform by a freight elevator. The crowd stood by, however, until the train pulled out.

There were nine in the Roosevelt party besides the colonel. They were Mrs. Roosevelt, Regis H. Post, former governor of Porto Rico; Theodore Douglas Robinson, a nephew; George D. Roosevelt, a cousin; Kermit Roosevelt, Frank Harper of the Outlook staff and his wife, and W. B. Howard and Travers D. Carmichael, also of the Outlook staff. They occupied an entire Pullman car and in order to accommodate the squad of newspaper men that accompanied the colonel an additional car was attached to the train. Arrangements were made also to telegraphic reports of the situation in Chicago at various stops.

The colonel blossomed out in a brand new hat of sombrero type and of pearl gray hue. Another distinctive feature of his garb was a large blue necktie with wide diagonal stripes, which left little to be seen of the familiar turndown collar and which contrasted bravely with the dark overcoat he wore over his light gray suit.

An army of photographers snapped the colonel as he emerged from the building. The colonel gaily waved the new sombrero to the onlookers as the machine drew away.

PLANNING SUFFRAGE PARADE

Thousands to Participate in Demonstration During Convention.

Baltimore, June 15.—Baltimore women suffragists are planning a big parade on Thursday evening of Democratic presidential convention week as a demonstration to the delegates and the leaders. Several thousand women are expected to be in line. Some of the suffragists will be costumed in the heroic dress of women of history, while the parade will be led by mounted suffragists.

MANY TALK OF COMPROMISE

McKinley Says Roosevelt Men Are Responsible for It.

Chicago, June 15.—The hotel lobbies and the various headquarters have buzzed with compromise candidate gossip. Both Taft and Roosevelt supporters could be found who would discuss the matter. Senator Kenyon of Iowa and his advisers, supporting Senator Cummins, lent their aid to spreading the compromise doctrine. The reappearance of this talk called forth a long statement from Director McKinley in which he charged the Roosevelt forces with encouraging the compromise talk.

HAMMOND PLANS TAFT RALLY

Arranges for Monday Meeting to Offer Roosevelt Demonstration.

Chicago, June 15.—John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican Clubs is planning a Taft demonstration meeting for next Monday night, the same night of the Roosevelt meeting. He announced that hundreds of members of the league who will be here would launch a Taft boosters' club at the Monday night meeting.

The league also has engaged the First regiment armory, near the Coleman, where it is planned to hold a ratification meeting next Friday night if Taft is the nominee and the fight has been settled by that time.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK ROOSEVELT'S TRAIN

Boys Accused of Placing Large Boulder on Track.

Albany, N. Y., June 15.—A large boulder in the path of the train which is bearing Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to Chicago brought his journey to an abrupt halt less than an hour after it began. The train was running at great speed when, two miles north of Tarrytown, it came to a sudden stop with a series of jolts and the crunching of brakes. The accident fortunately was not a serious one, but it delayed the train's arrival an hour at Albany.

Colonel Roosevelt sat quietly in his stateroom during the halt down the river, without coming out to inquire the cause of the delay.

"I did not know what had happened until it was all over," he said. "I wondered at the long delay, but had no idea what the cause was."

The damage was chiefly upon the locomotive and the air brake equipment. Three boys under ten years old were arrested at Tarrytown, charged with having rolled onto the New York Central tracks the boulder which Colonel Roosevelt's train struck. The boys were paroled in the custody of their parents to appear in court.

DIXON CHARGES DESERTION

Declares More Southerners Pledged to Taft, Will Support Roosevelt.

Chicago, June 15.—Senator Dixon, Roosevelt's campaign manager, issued the following statement regarding Roosevelt's plans:

"As soon as the colonel reaches Chicago he proposes to take personal charge of the fight and to personally manage his entire campaign. I believe he has some little reputation as a fighter, and a manager.

"The Taft forces are demoralized and all their whistling to keep up their courage is not drowning the noise of their chattering teeth. Their nerve is gone and their delegates are going. Notwithstanding Barnes' blarney and bold front the New York delegation has slipped its leash and the delegates are coming over to the Roosevelt camp. The knowledge that the New York delegation has broken has caused Taft delegates from both Northern and Southern states to send us letters assuring us of support."

MAY ADDRESS CONVENTION

Colonel Probably Will Speak in His Own Behalf.

Chicago, June 15.—Colonel Roosevelt is expected to remain in Chicago until the close of the convention, and plans to appear in the convention hall and may be given an opportunity to address the convention in his own behalf. It was stated. Such a development, unprecedented in every essential, undoubtedly would furnish material for a sensational demonstration.

News of the colonel's coming kindled enthusiasm in the regular delegates at the Congress hotel. William Flinn of Pennsylvania, who presided, urged the delegates to get out and drag into Mr. Roosevelt's headquarters any of the wavering Taft delegates.

GREAT INTEREST IN CONVENTION

Show at Chicago Is Expected To Be Record-Breaker.

HEAD OF TICKET IS PRIZE

Never Before Has There Been Such Intense Feeling Between the Factions—Many Interesting Figures to Be Seen About the Hotels in Chicago—The Real Veteran.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Chicago, June 15.—[Special.]—There never was a more interesting Republican national convention than that which will assemble in Chicago next Tuesday. If all predictions are fulfilled it will be a record-breaker. What makes it so interesting is that never before was there any such intense feeling between the factions. Back in 1880, in 1884 and in 1888 there was the greatest rivalry between the candidates and uncertainty as to the outcome until several ballots had been taken, but the lines of cleavage were not so sharp, nor the spirit of hostility so bitter. Already there is talk of a split convention; of failure of defeated factions accepting the result and even of a third ticket. Such talk was heard before the national committee began consideration of the contests, but became more pronounced as the day of the meeting for the convention approached. Uncertainty, doubt, distrust, dissatisfaction and many other trouble makers had had their share in contributing to a situation which has never been paralleled in Republican politics.

Head of Ticket the Prize.

What makes the coming convention more interesting than any other in the last twenty years is the fact that the head of the ticket is the prize for which the factions are contending. In 1892 it was almost certain Harrison would be nominated. It was known long before the convention met that McKinley would be named in 1896, and again in 1900. In 1904 Roosevelt's nomination was certain, just as Taft's nomination was a foregone conclusion in 1908. Those conventions were comparatively tame because of the certainty of the head of the ticket.

Vice President and Platform.

Interest in the former conventions centered in the selection of a vice president and in the platform. At this time the vice presidency has received no consideration by the politicians who have gathered in Chicago. There are suggestions of men for second place, but no one has time to give the subject a second thought. The platform has received even less consideration and no one has taken pains to speculate upon the planks which will be contested. It is taken for granted that a platform will be made to suit the candidate and also that no man will be chosen for vice president who is not satisfactory to the man who heads the ticket. At present, however, these are thrust into the background while the more important matter of naming a presidential candidate absorbs the attention of national committeemen, delegates and all others.

Big Men in Corridors.

As the crowds begin to fill up the hotels and the lobbies the men of high rank in the party have disappeared and sought the seclusion of their rooms and the different headquarters. For a week past they have been in evidence in the lobbies, chatting with friends and discussing convention affairs with each other and with the newspaper men. They had a little time to themselves then, but as the time for the convention to meet draws near they find themselves too much occupied to spend any time in the crowds.

An Interesting Figure.

One of the interesting figures during the week was P. D. Barker, member of the national committee from Alabama. Barker was once a Connecticut Yankee. He went South before the Civil war, served four years as a Confederate soldier, but retained his party affiliations. He has been a successful business man in Mobile and for several years a member of the National committee. He came to Chicago as a Taft delegate, but like many southern men underwent great pressure in an effort to get him to support Colonel Roosevelt. The Roosevelt men felt that Barker would have been a great acquisition.

The Real Veteran.

General Powell Clayton of Arkansas was the real Republican veteran in Republicanism, however, as he has been a member of the national committee since 1872. That is a long time for a man to remain in control of his party, for he had to have that control in order to maintain his position. General Clayton was for nearly eight years ambassador to Mexico. He is a standpatter of the kind that never wavers.

Looking Out for Labor.

National Committeeman Brooker of Connecticut was figuring up how long it would take to hear all the contests and announced that it would take a week working ten hours a day.

"We can't work ten hours a day," remarked Frank Lowden of Illinois, "or we shall offend the labor vote."

Thin Gold.

Gold can be beaten so thin that it would take 282,000 gold leaves to produce the thickness of a single inch.

GOVERNOR VESSEY.

Will Offer Drainage Plank to Republican Convention.

DRAINAGE SYSTEM PLANK

Governor Vessey to Present Matter to Republican Convention.

Chicago, June 15.—Both the Democratic and Republican parties will be asked to insert planks in their platforms favoring action to prevent Mississippi river floods and the reclamation of lowlands in the Mississippi valley. Such action was agreed upon at a flood and drainage conference called by Governor Deneen.

Governor Vessey of South Dakota was chosen to present the matter to the Republican convention and J. W. Newman of Kentucky to the Democratic gathering.

A permanent organization was effected at the meeting. The body will be known as the Association of Mississippi Valley States for River Control.

SECRETARY NAGEL APPROVES RULES

Ocean Liners Must Carry Lifeboats for Full Capacity.

Washington, June 15.—All ocean steamers entering American ports in future must be equipped with lifeboats sufficient to carry at one time every passenger and member of the crew, according to new regulations adopted by the steamboat inspection service and approved by Secretary Nagel.

In the case of coastwise, lake, bay and sound steamers lifeboats for all aboard must be carried, except from May 15 until Sept. 15, when, for various reasons, such travel is comparatively safe. During that period coastwise steamers must have life saving capacity for at least 60 per cent of those on board; and lake and sound steamers for at least 30 per cent. In case of the latter class of vessels also provision need be made only for 10 per cent of the passengers and crew, if the boats do not get further than five miles from land or do not navigate in waters deep enough to cover the vessel in case of disaster.

River steamers are required to have lifeboat accommodation for 10 per cent of those on board. A certain percentage of the lifeboat or raft equipment, varying with the class of vessel, must be approved by the steamboat inspection service.

BRYAN DISCUSSES COLONEL

Candidacy of Former President Funnishes Fun for Commoner.

Lincoln, Neb., June 15.—W. J. Bryan is getting a lot of fun out of Roosevelt's candidacy. Mr. Bryan says in the current issue of the Commoner:

"A few years ago Mr. Roosevelt said he would crawl on his hands and knees the length of Pennsylvania avenue to make Ellihu Root president of the United States, but he is unwilling to trust him as temporary chairman of a Republican national convention. What a change, but it cannot be forgotten that Mr. Roosevelt now denounces as a 'crook' a man whom he picked as his successor.

"An anti-third term league was organized in Kansas City a few days ago in anticipation of Roosevelt's nomination. Watch these clubs grow if the former president is again the candidate."

BROTHERS IN FATAL DUEL

Iowans in a Quarrel Empty Their Revolvers at Each Other.

Hamburg, Ia., June 15.—James and John Hunter, brothers, thirty-six and thirty-eight years, respectively, mortally wounded each other in a quarrel.

John Hunter had been working in his brother's livery barn, but recently was discharged. They met in the rear of the barn and emptied their revolvers at each other. James was shot three times through the body and John was wounded in the breast and both legs. Physicians say both will die.

LETTER CAUSES BIG SENSATION

WITH SILENCE AND DISDAIN

How Taft Men Decide to Treat Colonel's Presence.

Chicago, June 15.—Plans for demonstrations of various sorts to offset the arrival of Roosevelt were discussed by the Taft leaders, but no scheme was adopted. It was practically decided to treat the presence of the colonel with silence and disdain, although the Taft reception committee, which has begun the work of rounding up candidates and caring for them, was urged to additional activity.

The Roosevelt leaders, themselves somewhat surprised by the colonel's sudden decision to come to Chicago, immediately planned to avoid any spectacularism in his arrival. Alexander H. Revell of the Roosevelt national committee conferred with Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt chieftain, and it was agreed that Mr. Roosevelt will be met at the train and rushed immediately to the Congress hotel, where the rooms formerly known as the "presidential suite" have been reserved for him.

TAFT CLAIMS NOMINATION

President Says He Will Win on First Ballot.

Washington, June 15.—"There will be no third candidate. All the information I get is that I will be nominated on the first ballot with votes to spare," stated President Taft.

Friends of the president in Washington said that if he were not nominated he would decidedly oppose either Senator Cummins or Senator La Follette as compromise candidates. The president's opposition to these two senators, his friends said, would be based largely on their attitude toward the courts and the recall of judges and decisions.

A Witty Abbot.

Francis I. of France, being desirous to raise a learned man to the highest dignities of the church, asked him if he was of noble descent. "Your majesty," answered the abbot, "there were three brothers in Noah's ark, but I cannot tell positively from which of them I descended." The witty abbot obtained the appointment.

Dixon Makes Public One Written by Colored Delegate.

BOLTS TAFT FOR ROOSEVELT

Missive Is Alleged to Have Been Sent to Director McKinley and Announces Return of Money Placed in the Delegate's Hands to Defray Traveling Expenses—McKinley Makes Brief but Significant Response.

Chicago, June 15.—A letter written by Charles Banks, one of the negro Taft delegates at large from Mississippi, to Director McKinley of the Taft headquarters, announcing that he would support Roosevelt and was returning "the money placed in my hands at your suggestion to defray traveling expenses of some of the delegates from Mississippi," was given out by Senator Dixon of the Roosevelt campaign and created a sensation.

The letter was unaccompanied by explanation from the Roosevelt managers further than that "Senator Dixon received at Roosevelt headquarters the following copy of a letter sent to Hon. William B. McKinley."

Mr. Banks and his associates on the Taft delegation at large were seated by the national committee against the protest of the Roosevelt contestants from the state.

The letter alleged to have been written to Mr. McKinley by Mr. Banks said in part:

Mentions Returning Money.

"In keeping with my suggestion of yesterday I am returning to you herewith the money placed in my hands at your suggestion, to defray traveling expenses of some of the delegates from Mississippi."

"It is apparent that some one connected with your campaign has been continually trying to discredit me before the country and with my people for some time."

"When I was in Washington a few weeks ago looking after the new federal court bill from Mississippi, your assistant, without any suggestion from me whatever, brought up the matter of expenses of delegates from my state. I told him, then and there, in your presence, that so far as I was concerned I would not accept any expense money for me whatever."

"You then proposed that I take enough for the rest of the delegates. I stated to you that they were all men who could get to Chicago and you could look after the matter; here both of you, however, proposed that the matter be closed then, to which I agreed."

Reached Chicago Wednesday.

Mr. Banks says in the letter that when he reached Chicago last Wednesday he learned that some one had informed some Mississippi delegates that "you had given me a lot of money for them as well as for myself." He adds:

"I am returning you herewith the money and you can do as you see fit," and continues:

"In turning from the support of your candidate it may be urged that I have violated instructions. I shall say nothing of the conditions under which the convention issued instructions unless later developments require it; but no member of the delegations from Mississippi will say with justice to his conscience that I was elected on the strength of or alliance with any particular candidate."

The reply of the Taft headquarters, in the form of a remark from Mr. McKinley, was brief and oracular. Mr. McKinley said:

"I hope every Republican will read the Banks letter with extreme care and then draw his own conclusions. His disclosures are illuminating. Its issuance from the Roosevelt headquarters is significant."

It was more than intimated that this was merely the forerunner of more specific material to be issued from the Taft headquarters.

HOUSE PASSES PRIMARY BILL

Now Goes to Minnesota Senate to Consider Amendments.

St. Paul, June 15.—The statewide primary bill passed the house after a four-hour fight on amendments. The vote was 104 to 0.

The measure passed by the house is the bill already passed by the state with a few amendments that not materially affect it. The primary bill will go to the senate for consideration in the amendments and may be referred to a conference committee.

MCKINLEY HAS NEW TABLE

It Claims 594 Delegates for Taft and Concedes Colonel 438.

Chicago, June 15.—Director McKinley issued from Taft headquarters a revised table of delegates selected, brought up to date to agree with the decisions of the national committee in contest cases. The table gives Taft 594, 54 more than are necessary to nominate; Roosevelt, 438; La Follette, 86, and Cummins 10.

UNIVERSITY WEEK

Sessions Begin Monday—Interest
Still Growing—Large Attendance Anticipated

The first session of University
Week will begin Monday at 9:30.
We want to emphasize a few of the most interesting topics. This is "Town and Country Day." Supt.
Munroe of the Putnam school, Coka-to, will deliver two lectures, "Social Life in Town and Country," and "A Changed View of Education." Mr.
Munroe is at the head of one of the most up to date agricultural farm schools in the country. This school is considered a model of its kind, and experts from all parts of the Mississippi valley visit it to recommend its merits. Supt. Munroe's idea has been the merging of the interests of both town and country and thus making them one.

Mrs. Geo. E. Vincent will deliver an illustrated lecture on her trip to Guatemala. This lecture has been well received.

There are other features of the program that are worthy of mention but space will not permit, but we want to make special mention of the evening session, when the University Dramatic club will present the Shakespearean play, "Merchant of Venice." Wherever University week has been held this particular number has drawn great crowds, so much that many of the opera houses have been incapable of seating the people.
Pres. Vincent speaks in the highest terms of this presentation. It has met with such universal approval that it will be staged in Duluth and
St. Paul at the close of the season.

Indications points to a very large attendance in our city, therefore it will be necessary to purchase your tickets as soon as possible to secure good seats.

The prices are as follows: Season ticket which entitles holder to attend every session, $1.50; tickets for single sessions will be sold as follows, Monday night, "Merchant of Venice," 50c, 35c, 25c; all other evening sessions 35c and 25c; the morning and afternoon session will be free.
Season ticket holders will please take notice that their seats will be reserved till 8:30, after which they may be sold if application should be made.

We publish Saturday's program,
June 22nd, known as "Business Men's Day."

son, Department of Economics, Uni-

PARADE FORMATION GIVEN Program for the Three Days as Prepared by the Local Arrangements Committee

The State Federation of Labor convention will hold its opening session Monday, June 17, and the arrangements made by the local arrangements committee have been perfected and are announced in detail. The committee urges the business men and others to make a liberal use of the national colors and red, white and blue bunting and use them as decorations in honor of the presence of the convention.

The electric sign, "Welcome," will be placed in a conspicuous position and every delegate will be made to feel that he has been welcomed to a good town.

The convention opens at Gardner hall on Monday morning, June 17, at ten o'clock and Vice President P. T. Brown of the sixth congressional district, will make a short address when he calls the assemblage to order.

The next speaker will be Rev. W. J. Lowrie, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. He will be followed by Mayor H. P. Dunn, Carl Zapffe, president of the Brainerd Commercial club; Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney, rector of St. Francis Catholic church and other orators.

At 7:30 Monday evening the labor parade will take up its line of march, leaving the corner of Fifth and Laurel streets. F. E. Little will act as marshal of the parade and will appoint his aides. The following formation will be observed:

The Dramatic club is under the direction of Professor Chas. Holt, and the immediate leadership of Mr. Robert Wilson, an acknowledged star.

On Tuesday evening, after the convention, the delegates will be given an auto ride about town and after the ride they will be entertained at dinner at Gardner hall commencing at nine o'clock.

ARE OVER 400 DELEGATES
Delegates in Many Cases Accompanied by Family or Friends—Some Arriving Now

If the State Federation of Labor brings as many delegates to the city as the credential committee now holds credentials, there will be a large attendance and the convention at Brainerd will be the biggest one held for many years.

The hotels of the city will be taxed to care for the delegates and their friends and families. All those having rooms to rent in the city should put an ad in the Dispatch. It will help to place delegates looking for a room.

Richard Ilse, 223 Northeast Kindred street, has also listed rooms and has asked people to give him the number of delegates they would be able to offer rooms to.

Delegates are arriving now. Some even came on Friday to secure accommodations in advance of the convention.

BRAINERD VS BENTON SCHEDULED SUNDAY

The Two Pennant Chasers of the Central Minnesota Baseball Association Will

ENGAGE IN BATTLE ROYAL
At the Koering Grounds at 3 P. M. Sharp, Sunday—Benton Has a Fast Team

One of the best games of the season is scheduled for the Koering grounds on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock when Brainerd and Benton county will clash in a baseball game.

Brainerd stands the highest in percentage and Benton county is a close second. The only defeat sustained by Brainerd was at the hands of Benton County and Brainerd will work hard to even the score.

Labor convention delegates will see no better game in the northwest than the one Brainerd and Benton County will put up. The local fans will turn out in large numbers and a record crowd is expected at Koering field. The bleachers have been completed and the seating room has thus been increased by over 200 seats. You cannot afford to miss this game.

On Tuesday evening at 5:45 Brainerd will play Little Falls at Koering field. This game will also be an interesting contest. Lyle, of Crosby, will pitch for Brainerd. The mighty Dominick will hurl them over the plate for Little Falls.

On Wednesday evening Brainerd will play Royalton at the Koering grounds, the game being called at 5:45. James Alderman, or "Happy," will pitch for Brainerd. Doty will probably be on the mound for Royalton.

Notice

All business houses and offices are requested to decorate their places of business with bunting or flags for the State Federation of Labor convention to be held here June 17-18-19. Let us all make a special effort to have our city look attractive on this occasion.

H. P. DUNN,
Mayor.

KEEN KUTTER LAWN MOWERS

So light running that your "youngest" can now mow the lawn without help.

KEEN KUTTER Mowers are fast cutting and easy running because of the double gear and the fine ball bearings. A KEEN KUTTER will last longer than any mower on the market and is easily kept keen and sharp. To sharpen, merely reverse the blades and they sharpen themselves. A cheap mower will cost more in the end on account of repairs, will not do the work properly and will require twice as much labor.

Prices, $6.75 to $15.00.

Other Mowers from $3.00 up.

COMMUNICATED

Editor Dispatch:

I have been asked by a farmer in another part of the county if I would be willing to sign and circulate a petition and subscription list for expenses to investigate the board of county commissioners.

The proposition was new to me and I was not prepared to give a definite answer at the moment. Now, after thinking it all over, I have decided that I am not, and if you think it worth the space I should like my reasons to be publicly known.

In the first place, such an investigation as has been made of the water and light board of the city could not possibly benefit the average taxpayer if ever so faithfully made. What the country people feel, and what is prompting many of the farmers to support the move is high taxes, and a supposed needless general expenditure of the public funds suggested by known expenditures on the poor farm. This last I believe a majority of the taxpayers want cut out, and I am one of them.

As I see things there is a good deal of other needless expenditure, but I can't forget that I, and the great majority of us see and judge of results after expenditure and not before. I have no doubt that members of the county board themselves cannot approve of every corporate act afterwards. "Foresight" is not generally as good as "hindsight" with any of us. Shall we seek to criminate our officials because they are finite and human?

Were there any special act or deal of graft in evidence? I should favor an investigation, but I have not learned there are any such. I know there are lots of charges of petty graft made by business competitors and political rivals, but these things can never be controlled by legal restraint nor be legally criminal. They

Respectfully yours,
D. C. HENDERSON,
Nisswa, Minn., June 14.
